Snowmass Village, Colo., (April 13, 2021) – Summer 2021 continues to see the vibrancy and growth of Snowmass Village as a must-visit destination. This summer, visitors and locals will find continued evolution of Snowmass Base Village, featuring the groundbreaking of two new property developments, as well as the opening of new restaurants, and a lineup of unique weekly programming and activities from The Collective Snowmass. In addition, Summer 2021 sees the transformation of the Westin Snowmass into an Autograph Collection hotel, the renovation of the Wildwood Hotel, a new film series at Anderson Ranch Arts Center, long stay packages, and expanded flight service to the Roaring Fork Valley.

“Snowmass continues to shine as a destination,” says Rose Abello, Tourism Director. “This summer we are excited to watch the evolution take place before our eyes with the groundbreaking of Electric Pass Lodge, the Havens, and the renovation of the Westin and Wildwood hotels, not to mention all the other new activities and offerings debuting this summer. Snowmass is a must visit summer Rocky Mountain destination.”

Snowmass Lodging Updates

The Westin Snowmass & The Wildwood Hotel Undergo Multimillion-dollar Transformations

The Westin Snowmass & Wildwood Hotel sold in December 2020 for $70 million. This summer, the Westin Snowmass undergoes a multimillion-dollar transformation into an Autograph Collection hotel. The renovation includes all-new guestrooms and public spaces, a new signature restaurant concept, refreshed meeting space, expanded spa, and much more. The Wildwood Hotel is also undergoing an extensive renovation. Both hotels are slated to reopen in December 2021.

Electric Pass Lodge Breaks Ground in Spring 2021

The newest addition to Snowmass Base Village, Electric Pass Lodge is a collection of 53 two- and three-bedroom, ski-in/ski-out residences that are designed to be ultra-efficient and 100% powered by renewable energy, resulting in no on-going carbon footprint. These thoughtfully designed homes join a growing movement to reduce the climate change impact of new buildings and to preserve the fresh snow and clean mountain air. Electric Pass Lodge began pre-sales in January 2021 and broke ground in April 2021. electricpasslodge.com

Havens Break Ground in Spring 2021

Located slopeside on Fanny Hill, the Havens ten single-family, ski-in/ski-out homes sold out in just 42 days. These three- and four-bedroom homes are impeccably crafted contemporary cabins with a never-to-be-repeated location right on the Fanny Hill ski run, offering out-the-door access to the Snowmass Ski Area, the new Snowmass Base Village, and the Snowmass Mall. havenssnowmass.com

New Restaurant Openings

Kenichi Comes to Snowmass Base Village in Late Summer 2021

Kenichi, a favorite Aspen restaurant that has been serving world-class sushi and pan-Asian cuisine for nearly three decades – is opening its third Roaring Fork Valley location in Snowmass Base Village. This latest addition to the SBV restaurant collection is planning to open its doors in late summer 2021, taking over the restaurant space that formerly housed Sake. kenichiaspen.com

New Restaurant Openings on the Horizon

Aurum Aspen Snowmass Comes to Snowmass Base Village in Late 2021

Ski town favorite Aurum is opening its third location, Aurum Aspen Snowmass, in Snowmass Base Village. Aurum opens in the space occupied by State 38 last summer and which is currently housing the Village Tasting Room, a pop-up for the 2020/2021 winter season. The restaurant, which has a proven track record with locations in Steamboat Springs and Breckenridge, intends to undergo a renovation this spring, with plans to open for the winter 2021/2022 ski season. Known for its carefully curated menus and top-tier hospitality, the Aurum restaurants are part of the Destination Hospitality Restaurant Group, a company that specializes in creating dining experiences in unique destination resort markets. Aurum Aspen Snowmass offers Seasonal New American Cuisine in an elegantly casual dining space. The menu features the restaurant's classic dishes, including the Parker House Rolls, Crispy Curried Cauliflower, Warm Chocolate Chip Cookies and the popular house-made pasta. www.aurumaspensnowmass.com

New Film Series & Outdoor Sculptures Debut at Anderson Ranch Arts Center

Anderson Ranch Arts Center, a premier destination for art making and critical dialog in the contemporary art world, launches a new film series in partnership with Aspen Film. Taking place on the third Wednesday of each June, July, and August at 7:00pm in Schermer Meeting Hall, the new series focuses on arts related films, with Q&A sessions following. The June movie is titled WASTELAND, and the Q&A session features the artist of the film, Vik Muniz. All movies are open to the public, with advanced reservations required. In addition, this summer the Ranch is introducing 5-10 new sculptures to the highly popular outdoor sculpture exhibition, free and open to the public. Also new this summer, the traditional Recognition Dinner at the Hotel Jerome transforms into Recognition Week on the Anderson Ranch campus, featuring a series of events, July 12-16. Events include a Summer Series lecture from Simone Leigh, the 2021 International Artist Honoree, a Critical Dialog program, free public event and lecture by the Guerrilla Girls, a collaborative film night with Aspen Film, and more. www.andersonranch.org

Getting to the Maroon Bells in Summer 2021

Often referred to as the most photographed peaks in North America, the Maroon Bells are an extraordinary destination not to be missed during a visit to Snowmass. Summer 2021 requires advanced reservations for the RFTA shuttle bus from Aspen Highlands (June 7 -October 17). Limited day-of tickets may be available. Shuttle tickets for summer 2021 are $16 for adults and $10 for seniors and kids 12 and under. Guests can also drive and park at the Maroon Bells with a parking reservation. When the shuttle service is operating, parking reservations are available for half-day, whole-day, or overnight. Parking reservations are $10. New for summer 2021, private vehicles are allowed to drop off passengers between 6:00am and 8:00am without a parking reservation; however, visitors who are dropped off during this time will need a one-way ticket to ride the shuttle down to Aspen Highlands after 8:00am. Also new this summer, backpackers and hikers can get a shuttle ride down from Maroon Lake on the RFTA shuttle. Advance reservations are required for all one-way downhill travel and cost $10. All reservations opened on April 12, 2021. www.gosnowmass.com/get-snowmass-village-maroon-bells/

New Direct Flight from Austin, TX
