

Snowmass 101

- Two slopeside dining and shopping areas Base Village and the Snowmass Mall - are connected by a free Sky Cab Gondola, affectionately called the Skittles.
- Use the free Village Shuttle system to get around Snowmass, departing Daly Lane and points around the Village every 20 minutes. Find schedules and information at SnowmassTransit.com.
- Want to pop into Aspen? Free RFTA buses to Aspen depart every 30 minutes from the Snowmass Mall, Base Village Transit Center and Town Park Station between 6:45am and 1:45am. Find schedules and information at RFTA.com.
- Clark's Market, Snowmass' main grocery store and pharmacy, is located at the Snowmass Center on Brush Creek Road and is open 7:00am-10:00pm daily.
- Information centers at Town Park Station and the Snowmass Mall provide event schedules, activities information and directions. Stop by 9:00am-5:00pm daily, or call 970.922.2233.
- Take a ride on the new Breathtaker Alpine Coaster at the top of the Elk Camp Gondola. It's part of the new Lost Forest adventure center, with zip lines, ropes courses and more opening in summer 2018.
- Pardon our dust. The construction you see in Base Village will soon be home to a Limelight Hotel & Residences, skating rink, and much more. To get a glimpse of what's coming, visit AllinSnowmass.com.
- There is nothing quite like a powder day at Snowmass, and when it snows 8" or more overnight, the Ullrhof serves up free pancakes 10:00am-11:00am. Check the snow report to find out if it's a Powder Pancake day!

The 2017/2018 ski season marks the 50th Anniversary of Snowmass Ski Area!

When Snowmass director of skiing Stein Eriksen loaded the first chairlift on December 16, 1967, all eyes were on Snowmass-at-Aspen, then the country's largest and most complete winter resort. Over 50 years, Snowmass has grown into a thriving year-round resort and vibrant community, with a mountain whose possibilities continue to be explored.

In honor of our golden anniversary, we're celebrating all season long. Join us for Anniversary Weekend, December 15-17, 2017, complete with vintage pricing on lift tickets – just $6.50 on December 15th. And, join in the fun any time this winter with anniversary activities on the mountain and around Snowmass Village.

Photos courtesy of Aspen Historical Society, Colorado Snowsports Museum and Hall of Fame, and Jeremy Swanson Photography.

- On the mountain, look for gold trail signs with the 50th Anniversary logo, denoting the original runs from the 1967/1968 ski season.
- Take a historical mountain tour to learn about Snowmass' unique past, from the age of mammoths and mastodons, to the native Ute Indians and early Snowmass settlers, to the development of the modern-day resort.
- Visit participating Snowmass restaurants and retailers for $19.67 and/or $50 specials.
- Celebrate the days you've enjoyed at Snowmass with weekly champagne toasts in Base Village.
- Visit Base Village for a glimpse of Snowmass' past and future, with a retro art installation and a look at Base Village plaza as it takes shape.

You'll find details about 50th Anniversary events and activities on the following pages. Or, for a deeper look at our history and more information about how to celebrate with us, visit GoSnowmass.com/50-years.

V.I.K. SNOWMASS

In Snowmass, every child is a Very Important Kid, both on and off the slopes. In honor of our younger guests, we've developed V.I.K. Snowmass, a hub for activities, events and information to help ensure that your time here is nothing but fun. Every day of the week, you'll find activities and events designed with your family in mind – from outdoorsy to artsy, scientific to sporting.

More than twenty Snowmass restaurants offer kids' menus sure to please even the pickiest palates – from mac & cheese to mussels & frites.

Here you'll find the schedule of weekly activities for V.I.K.s, taking place December 18 - April 15. For additional details on even more kid-friendly events, activities and dining options, read on or visit VIKSnowmass.com.

All activities require adult supervision and are FREE unless indicated with a +. See descriptions on following pages.

ICE AGE DISCOVERY CENTER *

Did you know that mammoths, mastodons and giant ground sloths used to roam these lands?

In October 2010, a bulldozer operator working near Snowmass Village unearthed a single tusk of a young female mammoth. Over the next ten months, the Denver Museum of Nature and Science stepped in and uncovered more than 5,000 bones of prehistoric animals – 41 species in all. The Snowmass site quickly became the richest Ice Age ecosystem yet to be found at such high altitude.

Visit the Ice Age Discovery Center on the Snowmass Mall to learn the amazing story behind the discovery and meet Ms. Bumpy Head, a full-size skull fossil replica. The exhibit is fun for both kids and adults, with interactive displays, a resident paleontologist, and plenty of fossilized bones and teeth.
