

SNOWMASS

— COLORADO —

MEET YOUR OUTSIDE SIDE

SAY HELLO TO YOUR OUTSIDE SIDE.

There is someone you should meet. Another side of you that's been patiently waiting for their chance to shine. The one that howls at the moon, tangoes with the wind and doesn't know what an inside voice is. Come face-to-face with the side of you only nature can reveal in Snowmass Village, Colorado. Nestled in the Rocky Mountains, just 9 miles from Aspen, Snowmass puts nature at your doorstep with impeccable skiing and snowboarding in the winter, endless hiking and biking in the summer, and inspiring adventures year-round.

THE VILLAGE AT NATURE'S EDGE.

Tucked into the mountain among breathtaking peaks, you'll find a vibrant town brimming with restaurants ranging from relaxed to refined, and shops to outfit every adventure. The new Snowmass Base Village, open in late 2018, adds to the fun with a 5-story climbing wall, skating rink and more. In the winter, join the daily tradition of free slopeside s'mores, and celebrate après in lively bars and cozy lounges. In the summer, step out your door to find a perfect patio for an alfresco meal or catch a concert with a view.

SKIERS AND SNOWBOARDERS REJOICE.

Snowmass is the second-largest ski area in Colorado, consistently ranked among the best in North America. Known for its wide-open groomers and top-notch ski school, Snowmass also offers over 1,000 acres of double-black diamond terrain, plus three terrain parks with 80+ features from beginner boxes to a 22-foot Superpipe. With an average of two skiers per acre, your time in Snowmass is spent making turns instead of waiting for yours. Plus, your lift ticket grants access to all four Aspen Snowmass mountains – Snowmass, Aspen, Highlands and Buttermilk.

WINTER ADVENTURE WONDERLAND.

Your options on a winter day in Snowmass extend far beyond corduroy and powder. Take your tribe snow tubing, ice skating, or for a ride on the new alpine coaster. Get out into nature on a dogsled, snowshoes or cross-country skis. Or unwind with a spa treatment, pop into neighboring Aspen for the day, or simply curl up by a fire and watch the snow fall. Ullr Nights are a favorite way to spend a Friday evening, with dinner, dancing, and snow-centric activities under the stars.

EXCITING EVENTS YEAR-ROUND.

The Snowmass events calendar is packed with fun. The summer lineup includes Tuesday farm-to-table dinners, Wednesday night rodeos, Thursday open-air concerts, and Fridays on the Mall. Each summer weekend, you'll find a different special event: think mountain biking and trail running races, tasting events, car shows, music festivals, and a beloved hot-air balloon bash – all amplified by the stunning mountain setting. In the winter, you'll find ski and snowboard competitions, Village-wide celebrations, and a closing weekend party complete with swimsuit ski down.

MILES OF SUMMER ADVENTURES.

Summer in Snowmass is your outside side's paradise, with 80+ miles of hiking and biking trails and a bounty of mountain activities. Bikers of all abilities love Snowmass' pristine cross-country trails, lift-served downhill terrain, and renowned road rides. Hikers who venture along ridgelines and through mountain meadows are rewarded with breathtaking views at every turn. Guided hikes, jeep tours, raft trips and horseback rides take you into the wilderness, and can bring you to a hub of on-mountain fun at the new Lost Forest, with an alpine coaster, ropes courses, zip lines, and more.

VERY IMPORTANT KIDS.

In Snowmass, every child feels like a V.I.K. – Very Important Kid – thanks to kid-centric activities every day in both winter and summer. Play at the Treehouse Kids' Adventure Center, get artsy at Anderson Ranch, splash at the Snowmass Recreation Center, or size up fossils at the Ice Age Discovery Center. Find togetherness in the action-packed Lost Forest, or take a break while the kids enjoy a day at an engaging summer day camp or the award-winning ski school – followed by free après-ski s'mores, of course.
